

News Release

Escambia County
Office of Public Information and Communications
34 West Government Street, Pensacola FL 32501

---

Hurricane Ivan Update # 22
Date: September 16, 2004
Time: 709

Page 1 of 1

Curfew Extended Until Further Notice

- The curfew in Escambia County is not being lifted at 8:00am this morning. It is being extended until further notice. All residents need to remain at the present location until the curfew is lifted. Only law enforcement personnel and emergency responders should be traveling the roadways during the day today.

Please repeat the above information as often as possible.

- The Escambia County Administrator and Escambia County Sheriff announced that last night that a curfew was in effect. The curfew is countywide, including the City of Pensacola and the Town of Century. This curfew will remain in effect as long as the disaster order is in effect. Officials would like to remind the citizens that this curfew is in effect for their protection and the protection of their property.
- Only general information calls should be made to the Citizens Information Line.

Citizen Information Line
(850) 595-3344

- Please visit the Emergency Management website at www.escambiaemergency.com for information on what can be taken to shelters, protective actions and other information relating to Hurricane Ivan.