URGENT - REVISED

Perdido Key Update

- Beginning Saturday, October 9, 2004, residents and business owners between the Theo Baars Bridge and the Perdido Key Fire Station will be allowed on the Key daily from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.
 - Residents may choose to live in RVs or travel trailers that are completely self-contained while repairs are being done. RVs or trailers must be located on the resident's property. They cannot be located on the right-of-way.
 - RVs and trailers may be moved on to the island on Sundays only to reduce traffic congestion.
 - They may also bring insurance adjusters and contractors for the purpose of securing their homes and property and getting their personal belongings.
 - Owner/Lessee needs to show proof of ownership/residency
 - Insurance adjusters should have proper credentials
 - Owner/Lessee and adjuster should ride in the same vehicle if possible
 - Residents must park in their driveways or parking lots. No vehicles will be allowed to park on the rights of way.
 - Generators will be allowed, but must not be hooked up directly to the house.
 - Pick-up trucks and trailers to haul in supplies or personal property out will be allowed.
 - Debris cannot be placed on the right of way in such a manner that it covers water, electrical, cable, and sewer meters/boxes.

- Perdido Key Access will be allowed from the east from the Theo Baars Bridge and from the west from the Alabama line.
 - West Side Access:
 - Those wishing to access Perdido Key from the west side must have a white pass, a yellow Perdido pass or a Perdido Key sticker. The white passes can be obtained at the Perdido Key Citizen Information Center at the Old Eckerds.
 - Residents may access their property from the Alabama side in their own vehicle at their own risk.
 - Citizens are urged to exercise extreme caution due to the condition of the road.

 - East Side Access:
 - Proof of residency is required (i.e. drivers license or tax bill)

Perdido Key Update

- Perdido Key has opened an Information Center, located at the old Eckerds, in the Food World shopping center at the intersection of Perdido Key Drive and Innerarity Point Road. Their phone numbers are 492-5177, 492-7359, and 492-4320, and their hours are 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., seven days a week.
- Right of Entry Forms:
 - All residents/leaseholders/owners Perdido Key are required to sign right of entry forms to allow debris contractors to remove the debris and sand from their property. It is important to fill out this form and return it as soon as possible. All right of entry forms must have an original signature (copies will not be accepted). Those residents/leaseholders/owners who do not sign a right of entry form will be responsible for cleaning their own property and will be subject to county codes. Forms can be obtained as follows:
 - Perdido Key Citizens Information Center at the Old Eckerds on Sorrento Road.
 - These forms can also be obtained from the Escambia County web site at www.myescambia.com
- Building Contractors
 - All licensed Building Contractors must have a decal to work on the beaches.
 - Decals may be obtained Perdido Key at the Perdido Key Citizen Information Center at the Old Eckerds on Sorrento Road.
- Building Permits
 - Escambia County Building Inspectors will be located at the Old Eckerds in the Food World Shopping Center on Sorrento Road to issue permits. Property owners and contractors can obtain building, electrical, and plumbing permits for demolition and reconstruction from 8:00 a.m to 5:00 p.m. No one will be able to begin any demolition and/or reconstruction without a permit and only those areas that have been opened for demolition and/or reconstruction will be permitted.

All proper permits must be obtained before any work can begin. Areas will be announced as they are cleared

As conditions on Perdido Key improve, this access plan will be reevaluated and adjusted.
